Genoua, Aug. 20.

REcruits for the French Army ariv'd here frequently in Tartanes from Provence. A Feluca from Malaga has brought the News of the arrival of the Engliſh and Dutch Fleet on the Coaſt of Portugal.

Rome, Aug. 26. Yeſterday being St. Louis's Day, in the Evening Cardinal Fourbin treated 50 French and Spaniſh Prelates with ſeveral Noblemen. The Pope has appointed a Congregation to reform the Calendar, and Letters have been written to the moſt conſiderable Men for Skill in Aſtronomy and Chronology in all parts of Europe and Aſia to communicate their Advices on that Subject, that it may be ſetled as perfectly as is poſſible.

Vienna, Sept. 2. Laſt week the Saxon Envoys receiv'd the Inveſtiture of ſome Lands, which that Court holds in the Kingdom of Bohemia, from his Imperial Majeſty, with great Ceremony.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Sept. 19.

Vienna, Sept. 6. 'Tis reported here that General Heuſler will be ſent into Croatia to take upon him the Command of 1000 Huſſars that are to ſerve in Italy, or, as ſome will have it, to take care of the Convoys of Proviſions and Ammunition that are to go by Land to Prince Eugene's Army. The Baron Van Auw, Envoy from the Abbot of Fulda, had the Inveſtiture of the Lands which his Maſter holds of the Emperor renew'd to him yeſterday by his Imperial Majeſty: After which the Imperial Court went from la Favorita to Eberſtorf there to continue for 6 Weeks. Orders are ſent to Ulm to provide Boats for bringing the Queen of the Romans, who is great with Child, hither.

Ratisbon, Sept. 11. The Deputys of the Proteſtant Body were two days ago in Conference, and reſolv'd to addreſs themſelves to the Queen of England, to treat her to eſpouſe their oppreſſed Cauſe, and, foraſmuch as the 4th Article of the Treaty of Ryſwick has been the occaſion of their Sufferings ſince that time, that the Affairs of Religion may be reiſtabliſh'd on the Foot of the Treaty of Weſtphalia.

Frankfort, Sept. 13. They write from Vienna that the King of Pruſſia had order'd his Envoy Extraordinary the Count van Metternick, to acquaint the Imperial Court, that, notwithſtanding his Pruſſian Majeſty's Pretenſions had not been fully comply'd with, he would give his Voice in the Diet of the Empire at Ratisbon, for declaring War againſt France.

Cologne, Sept. 15. Upon Advice from good Hands that the French and the Elector of Cologne are reſolv'd to make an Attempt upon the little Towns of Seigberg and Lulsdorf, that, having made themſelves Maſters of them, they may without controll raiſe Contributions all over that part of the Country, we have for ſeveral Days been ſending a great quantity of Bullets, Powder, Lead and Grenadoes, with a Detachment of 20 Men out of each Company of Pruſſians that are garriſon'd in this City, to Siegberg; and 'tis talk'd that an entire Regiment will march thither likewiſe. The Fortifications of Lulſdorf are ſtrengthening, the Stores of Ammunition and Proviſions augmented, and the Garriſon reinforced. The French Ingeniers have perſwaded our Elector to raiſe ſome Forts on the other ſide of the Rhine over againſt Bonn, beſides the New Works which are carrying on round the City.

From the Harlem Courant, Dated Sept. 21.

Bruſſels, Sept. 17. It being agreed between the Dutch and theſe Provinces, to continue the Commerce between them during the War by Paſsports; Orders are iſſued out from hence to all the Officers of the Cuſtoms, to collect double the Impoſts with which the ſeveral Merchandizes ſtand charg'd either by the Tarif or particular Ordinances, of all Goods that ſhall go through their Hands in virtue of the ſaid Paſsports; and likewiſe 5 per Cent ad Valorem of all unrated Goods; Wooll and Silk excepted, which are ſtill to pay no Duty.

London, Sept. 24. By Letters from Cadiz of the 11ſt Inſtant that came Yeſterday by the Lisbon Mail 'tis advis'd, That on that day the Forces under the Duke of Ormond poſſeſs'd themſelves of Puerto Real, and was battering Fort St. Cruce (which ſtands over againſt Fort Puntal on the other ſide of the Bay) by Sea and Land. At the coming away of the Mail, Advice came to Lisbon, that theſaid Fort was taken. Several Bombs have been thrown into the Town, but 'tis not known what execution they have done, there being no Account directly from the Fleet.
